

Indiana's telelphone privacy law has worked well. I would not be in favor of any reduction of its standards. Unwelcome and unsolicited calls have all but ceased. I would not wish to return to the fifteen to twenty unwanted calls per week that occured before signing onto the program.